Report of the Superintendent of Schools.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Miss Julia E. Barker still sustains her reputation as a thorough and conscientious teacher.

PRIMARY SCHOOL.

Miss Gertrude L. Dunbar continues to serve this school acceptably.

GENERAL GRANT SCHOOL.

Unfortunately this school has had a different teacher for each term. The Spring term was taught by Miss Sunie E. Chase. She rendered excellent service, but her plans were such that she could not be secured for the Fall and Winter terms. Miss Florence Jones taught the Fall term. She won the good will of the pupils, kept good order, and seemed to manage the school well, but at the close of the term complaints were made that she did not "keep her hours", and she resigned. Mrs. Harry Feltis was secured for the Winter term and has done good work. We wish that she might continue to serve this school.

C. H. JOHONNETT, Superintendent.
